Gayle Hardie & Malcolm Lazenby will engage the audience in a conversation about developing a new type of leadership in Australia and the Asia-Pacific region.

Partnering with a remote Aboriginal community in Mapoon, Cape York Peninsula, they have offered leaders an opportunity to experience spiritual and inner dimensions of leadership, as a basis for bringing change in community and organisations.

INITIATIVES OF CHANGE (IoFC)

For over 70 years IoFC has brought people of diverse backgrounds and faiths together. It has provided a rallying point for individuals and teams to work for justice, healing and human development, based on personal change, starting with their own lives.

The 'Rediscovering Leadership' programme is part of a series of 'Conversations That Matter' being held at 'Armagh' the International Centre for IoFC in Melbourne.
